Due to the difficulty of keeping the information up to date, we do not have a booklet of businesses that accept the discount card. Cardholders just need to ask the business if they give a senior discount.

Guidelines for using the OFA Senior Discount Card

- Price reductions are limited to cash sales only – not credit.
- Price reductions are on established price items and services, sale priced items, or specials are not included.
- Present your card to the participating merchant before the bill of sale is complete, you may ask the merchant to quote the price before showing the card.
- Your card is limited to your personal use
- Office for the Aging, Inc. reserves the right to withdraw the discount card from any person who abuses the card's privileges.
- The Office in no way endorses merchandise and services for any business that accept the card.
